

ADRIAN WHEATLEY – After a collegiate career at the University of Tennessee that included two NCAA All-American honors and a 2001 NCAA team championship, Coach Wheatley has guided numerous college track athletes to conference championships, regional qualifiers and school records, as well as All-American honors. In his first season at Illinois, Wheatley will serve primarily as the sprints and hurdles coach. His career began at Austin Peay University and the College of Charleston, followed by three years as an assistant coach at Virginia.

LISA SENAKIEWICH – Former Spartan standout Lisa Senakiewich continues her career at East Lansing for a second year as assistant cross country and track & field coach. In her first year Coach Senakiewich led the women's cross country team to the program's first conference championship in ten years. Herself an All-America Award winner in 2008-09, Lisa has already made an impact on the track athletes at MSU, guiding one student to an All-American performance in the NCAA Cross Country Championships, as well as school records in the 5000m run.

CLIVE ROBERTS – Clive Roberts is in his 4th season as an assistant coach for the University of Iowa track & field team. Since 2009 he has overseen women's sprints & hurdles (short and long), women's relays, and men's & women's horizontal jumps. In 2011 he was also named Director of Recruiting. The Toronto, Canada, native led five student-athletes to Big Ten titles in 2011, setting five school records and earning five All-America honors. Clive's coaching career began at his alma mater, Central Michigan, where he served as a graduate assistant. He spent two seasons at Bowling Green State before arriving at Iowa in 2009.

LYNNE ANDERSON – Coach Anderson is in her 32nd season at Minnesota in charge of women's throwers. She has guided over a dozen athletes to national acclaim a total of 22 times, continuing the tradition of success at Minnesota season after season. Lynne has helped to produce a long list of All-Americans and Big-Ten champions during her tenure, and was honored by her peers as the USTFCCA Midwest Region Assistant coach of the Year in 2007 after having at least one athlete compete in every throwing event at both the indoor and outdoor NCAA Championships that year. Prior to 2000, Anderson also was the throwing coach for the Golden Gopher men's team.